

6-19/240.80 Securities

To attach a security, the levying officer shall comply with COMM 8112. (CCP 488.450)

- 6-19/240.81 Certificated Security

The interest of a debtor in a certificated security may be reached by a creditor only by actual seizure of the security certificate by the officer making the levy. However, a certificated security for which the certificate has been surrendered to the issuer may be reached by a creditor by legal process upon the issuer. (COMM 8112(a))

- 6-19/240.82 Uncertificated Security

The interest of a debtor in an uncertificated security may be reached by a creditor only by legal process upon the issuer at its chief executive office in the United States. (COMM 8112(b))

- 6-19/240.83 Security in Possession of Secured Party

The interest of a debtor in a certificated security for which the certificate is in the possession of a secured party, or in an uncertificated security registered in the name of a secured party, or a security entitlement maintained in the name of a secured party, may be reached by a creditor by legal process upon the secured party. (COMM 8112(d)) "Secured party" means a lender, seller or other person in whose favor there is a security interest, including a person to whom accounts or chattel paper have been sold. If a security interest is in favor of a trustee, indenture trustee, agent, collateral agent, or other representative, the representative is the secured party. "Security agreement" means an agreement which creates or provides for a security interest.

- 6-19/240.84 Security Entitlement

"Security entitlement" means the owner holds a security indirectly through a securities intermediary. "Securities intermediary" means either a clearing corporation or a person, including a bank or broker, that in the ordinary course of its business maintains securities accounts for others and is acting in that capacity.

The interest of a debtor in a security entitlement may be reached by a creditor only by legal process upon the securities intermediary with whom the debtor's securities account is maintained. (COMM
