6-23/520.00 Withholding Period

The withholding period commences on the 10th day after service of the earnings withholding order on the employer. The employer is required to withhold from the earnings of the employee payable for any pay period which ends during the withholding period. The controlling date is the date when the pay period ends, not when the earnings are paid. (CCP 706.022)