6-23/700.20 Employer Withholding After Termination of Order

The employer is not liable for amounts withheld from the earnings of the employee and paid to the levying officer after the termination of the earnings withholding order as specified in the court order or notice of termination from the levying officer, made prior to receipt from the court or levying officer of such order or notice. (CCP 706.022(c))