

6-30/000.00 Exemptions

• 6-30/100.00 Exemptions

Exemptions are creatures of statute, and no property is exempt unless made so by express provisions of law. (Estate of Brown, 123 C 399 – cite available through CMB Ops) Whether or not property is exempt and in what amount shall be determined by the exemption statute in effect when the lien was created, or if there has been a series of overlapping liens, when the earliest lien was created. If there is a levy of execution, then the law in effect at the time of the levy governs, regardless of prior liens. (CCP 703.050)

• 6-30/110.00 Adjustment of Exemption Amounts

The Judicial Council is responsible for periodically adjusting and publishing exemption amounts for bankruptcy (CCP 703.140), motor vehicles (CCP 704.010), and homestead (CCP 704.730). As a result, the exemption amount in an underlying section may not match the governing exemption amount determined by the Judicial Council.

The CURRENT DOLLAR AMOUNTS OF EXEMPTIONS FROM ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENTS \(EJ-156\) contains the latest exemption amounts and is published on the Judicial Council's website, <https://www.courts.ca.gov/home.htm>.

 - Earnings (CCP 487.020\(c\))
 - All property not subject to attachment – see CCP 487.010 (CCP 487.020\(d\))

• 6-30/140.00 Persons Who Can Claim Exemption

Exemptions apply only to a natural person. (CCP 703.020\(a\)) However, the following person may file a claim of exemption:

- The judgment debtor or a person acting on behalf of the judgment debtor (CCP 703.020\(b\)\(1\))
 - In the case of community property
 - The spouse of the debtor whether or not the spouse is also a judgment debtor (CCP 703.020\(b\)\(2\))
 - Domestic partner of a debtor whether or not the domestic partner is also a judgment debtor (CCP 703.020\(b\)\(3\))

• 6-30/150.00 Exemptions Only Apply to Writs of Attachment or Execution

The exemptions do not apply if the judgment to be enforced is for foreclosure of a mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien or encumbrance on the property other than the lien created by attachment or execution. (CCP 703.010)

• 6-30/160.00 Property Not Subject to Levy

Property that is not subject to enforcement of a money judgment is exempt without making a claim and may not be levied upon or in any other manner applied to the satisfaction of money judgment. (CCP 704.210) If exempt property is levied upon, it may be released pursuant to the claim of exemption procedure. (CCP 695.040) This is also true for property not subject to levy under a writ of attachment. (CCP 482.100, 487.020)

A fund that is exempt remains exempt after deposited in a deposit account to the extent it can be traced. (CCP 703.080) This is also true for earnings paid during the 30-day period ending on the date of levy. (CCP 704.070)

The court can authorize property otherwise exempt upon filing a claim to be applied toward satisfaction of a judgment for child, family, or spousal support. (CCP 703.070)

- 6-30/170.00 Time Extension to File Exemption

Property that is exempt by filing a claim may be claimed within the time and in the manner prescribed in the applicable enforcement procedure, and if not so claimed, the exemption is waived. (CCP 703.030) However, the court does have authority to grant relief from a failure to file a timely and proper claim of exemption. (CCP 473) Therefore, if a claim is submitted beyond the statutory time accompanied by a certified court order allowing the claim, it shall be accepted so long as the lien is in place or property remains in the custody of the levying officer.

- 6-30/180.00 Jointly Owned Property

- • 6-30/180.10 Joint Property

Property which would otherwise be exempt is nonetheless exempt because the debtor owns an undivided interest in it in common with a third party. (Servanti v. Lusk, 43 CA 238)

- • 6-30/180.20 Partnership or Corporate Property

Although a partner is co-owner of specific partnership property, it is not assignable except in connection with the assignment of rights of all the partners in the same property. A partner's right in specific partnership property, is not subject to enforcement except on a claim against the partnership, and when partnership property is levied upon for a partnership debt, a partner cannot claim any right under the exemption laws.

A corporation, whether general or professional, has no right to a claim of exemption as the statute applies only to natural persons since the purpose is to protect an individual debtor and the debtor's family, not to bestow exemption benefits on corporations. (Canal-Randolph Anaheim Inc. v. Wilkoski, 103 CA 3d 282)

- • 6-30/180.30 Community Property

person. (CCP 487.010, 695.020) The exemptions apply to all property that is subject to enforcement of a money judgment, including the interest of the spouse of the judgment debtor in community property. The fact that one or both spouses are judgment debtors under the judgment or that property sought to be applied to the satisfaction of the judgment is separate or community does not increase or reduce the number or amount of the exemptions.

Where the property exempt under a particular exemption is limited to a specified maximum dollar amount, unless the exemption provision specifically provides otherwise, the two spouses together are entitled to one exemption limited to the specified maximum dollar amount, whether one or both of the spouses are judgment debtors under the judgment and whether the property sought to be applied to the satisfaction of the judgment is separate or community. (CCP 703.110)

Exemptions may be claimed, in the case of community property, by the spouse of the judgment debtor whether or not the spouse is also a judgment debtor. (CCP 703.020)

- • 6-30/202.00 Cause of Action

- • • 6-30.202.10 Personal Injury

Until final and not appealable, a cause of action for personal injury is exempt without making a claim, although it is subject to a lien (CCP 708.410). After settlement or final judgment, the award is exempt upon filing a claim to the extent necessary for the support of the judgment debtor and the spouse and dependents of the judgment debtor. The award is not exempt against a judgment creditor who is a health care provider whose claim is based on providing health care for the injury for which the award or settlement was made. If the award is payable periodically, the amount that may be applied to satisfaction of a money judgment is the same as may be withheld pursuant to an earnings withholding order. (CCP 704.140)

- • • 6-30/202.20 Wrongful Death

Until final and not appealable a cause of action for wrongful death is exempt without making a claim although it is subject to a lien. (CCP 708.410). If the award arose out of the wrongful death of the judgment debtor's spouse or a person on whom the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor's spouse was dependent, the award after settlement or final judgment is exempt upon filing a claim to the extent reasonably necessary for support of the judgment debtor and the spouse and dependents of the judgment debtor. If an award meets the previous criteria, but is payable periodically, the amount that may be applied to satisfaction of a money judgment is the same as may be withheld pursuant to an earnings withholding order. (CCP 704.150)

• • 6-30/203.00 Cemetery Plot

A family plot is exempt without making a claim. A plot for the judgment debtor and the spouse of a judgment debtor is exempt. Land held for the purpose of sale or disposition as cemetery plots or otherwise is not exempt. (CCP 704.200)

• • 6-30/204.00 Direct Deposit Public Benefits and Social Security Deposit Accounts

Direct Deposit Public Benefits and Social Security Deposit Accounts are deposit accounts in which payments of public benefits or social security benefits are directly deposited by the government or its agent. These accounts are exempt without making a claim in the following amount:

- Where one depositor is the designated payee of public benefits-$1,750 (CCP 704.080\(b\)\(1\))
- Where one depositor is the designated payee of social security payments-$3,500 (CCP 704.080\(b\)\(2\))
- Where two or more depositors are designated payee of public benefits-$2,600
 - Unless such depositors are joint payees of payments which represent a benefit to only one of the depositors, in which case the exempt amount is $1,750 (CCP 704.080\(b\)\(3\))
- Where two or more depositors are designated payee of social security payments-$5,250
 - unless such depositors are joint payees of payments which represent a benefit to only one of the depositors, in which case the exempt amount is $3,500 (CCP 704.080\(b\)\(4\))

Any amount which exceeds the exemption is exempt to the extent it consists of public benefits payments. (CCP 704.050\(c\))

• • 6-30/205.00 Earnings

• • • 6-30/205.10 Child or Spousal Support Debt

A withholding order for support under an execution for alimony or child support does not reach all of the debtor's earnings. 50 percent of the debtor's earnings are automatically exempt if the debt is for child or spousal support. (CCP 706.052\(a\))

15 USC 1677 permits the states to have more stringent restrictions than are set forth in Federal legislation. As a consequence, the Federal restrictions pursuant to 15 USC 1673\(b\) of the amounts that may be withheld from wages do not apply to a judgment for alimony or child support, and California law is controlling.

Although no claim of exemption may be filed for earnings withheld pursuant to a withholding order for support, upon motion of any interested party, the court shall make an equitable division of the judgment debtor's earnings that takes into account the needs of all the persons the judgment debtor is required to support and shall effectuate such division by an order determining the amount to be withheld from the judgment debtor's earnings pursuant to the withholding order for support. (CCP 706.052\(b\))

Such an order may not authorize an amount to be withheld which is in excess of that allowable by Federal law under 15 USC 1673. (CCP 706.052\(c\))

Attorney's fees and costs awarded in an action for dissolution of marriage are not in the same category as a judgment for support.

• • • 6-30/205.20 All Other Debt

75 percent of the debtor's disposable wages are automatically exempt if the debt is not for child or spousal support. (CCP 706.050, 15 USC 1673)

• • • 6-30/205.30 Exemption Claimed for Support of Debtor and Debtor's Family

The debtor may claim as exempt the portion of the debtor's earnings which is necessary for the support of the debtor or the debtor's family supported in whole or in part by the debtor unless the debt is incurred for personal services rendered by any employee or former employee of the debtor or is incurred by the debtor, or his or her spouse or family for the common necessities of life. In determining whether the debtor's earnings are necessary for the use of the debtor's family, the circumstances of each case and the position of the family involved must be considered. It has been held that items of expense for recreation, music lessons and insurance for the debtor's wife and family were for necessities. (Sanker v. Humborg, 48 CA 2d 205)

Monthly expenses expended on behalf of the debtor's minor daughter attending university have been held to be necessities. (Diamond v. Bent 157 CA 2d Supp. 857) The term "common necessities of life" has a different meaning than above. If the plaintiff's cause of action is based on an obligation incurred for "common necessities of life," only that portion of the debtor's earnings included in the automatic exemption is exempt.

Common necessities of life as used in (rechaptered as CCP 706.051) means those things which are commonly required by persons for the sustenance of life regardless of their employment or status. It must be such an article that in the hands of anyone, it is to be regarded universally, or substantially so, as necessary to sustain life. (Los Angeles Finance v. Flores, 110 CA 2d Supp. 850)

• • • 6-30/205.40 Earnings in Deposit Account

Earnings already received by the debtor may still be claimed as exempt earnings if they can be traced into deposit accounts or in the form of cash or its equivalent. (CCP 703.080) Earnings that have already been garnished for support and placed in a deposit account are totally exempt. If earnings have not been previously garnished, then 75 percent of the earnings in the account are exempt. This is not an automatic exemption and a claim must be filed. The procedures governing such a claim are not the procedures for claiming an exemption pursuant to an earnings withholding order, but rather the procedures for claiming an exemption for other property. (CCP 704.070)

• • • 6-30/205.50 Seamen

(CCP 704.710(3)(c))

Any proceeds received for a homestead remain exempt in the amount of the exemption for six months after receipt, unless such proceeds are applied to property other than a new homestead, in which case the proceeds are no longer exempt. (CCP 704.720)
