6-30/360.20 Direct Deposit Public Benefits and Social Security Payments

> Upon receipt of a Memorandum of Garnishee from a financial institution stating that funds in the account in excess of the amount exempt without making a claim are being held pursuant to levy, the levying officer shall promptly serve the notice on the judgment creditor either personally or by mail.

- A copy of the Memorandum of Garnishee from the financial institution indicating the Direct Deposit Public Benefits and Social Security Payments
- A notice of claim of exemption. The notice shall state that the claim of exemption has been filed and that the earnings withholding order will be terminated, or modified to reflect the amount of earnings claimed to be exempt in the claim of exemption, unless a notice of opposition to the claim of exemption is filed with the levying officer by the judgment creditor within 10 days after the date of the mailing of the notice of claim of exemption (CCP 706.105(c)(3)) The time allowed shall be 10 days and is extended by the appropriate number of days pursuant to CCP 684.120 in a case where service on the judgment creditor is by mail.