

6-31/800.00 Hearing on Third Party Claim and/or Undertaking

Within 15 days, after a third party claim is filed with the levying officer, or after an undertaking is posted in favor of the creditor by the third party to release, either the creditor or the third person may petition the court for a hearing to determine the validity of the third party claim and the proper disposition of the property that is the subject of the claim. (CCP 720.310\(a\)) The proper court to hear the claim is the court which issued the writ. (CCP 680.160) A claim filed after a levy under a state warrant of collection may be heard in the superior court where the property levied on is located. (CCP 688.030\(c\))

Unless continued for good cause, the hearing shall be held within 20 days after the petition is filed, and may be held whether or not an undertaking has been filed. If a deposit has been made to pay off a third party claiming a security interest or lien, no hearing is held. (CCP 720.310)

At least 15 calendar days prior to the hearing, the petitioner shall serve and file notice of the time and place of the hearing, either personally or by mail, on the creditor or third person (whichever is not the petitioner) and the debtor, and file a copy of the notice with the levying officer. • 6-31/820.00 Levying Officer Duties

Promptly after receipt of the notice of hearing, the levying officer shall file with the court the third party claim, any statement filed with the third party claim, any undertaking filed by the creditor or third person, and any notice in lieu of an undertaking filed by a public entity. (CCP 720.330)

• 6-31/830.00 Stay

After the filing of a third party claim, upon motion of the creditor, debtor, or third person, the court may make an order staying the sale of the property under a writ or enjoining any transfer or other disposition of the property levied upon under a writ until proceedings for the determination of the rights of a third person can be commenced and prosecuted to termination. (CCP 720.380)

Unless the levying officer is served with a court order, the right to a hearing, or fact that one is pending, has no effect on property being held under the levy. The property should be sold, delivered, or released based on whether or not proper undertakings have been filed, and justification of sureties has been completed or waived. However, it would be prudent to continue to hold the property upon receipt of a court order determining the claim or sufficiency of the undertaking.

(CCP 720.390) The judgment is conclusive between the parties to the proceeding

If it is determined in the hearing on the third party claim that the debtor has an interest in the property that may be levied upon or otherwise applied to the satisfaction of the judgment, and the property has been released for failure of the creditor to file an undertaking or because the third person filed an undertaking to release, the property may be again levied upon or otherwise sought to be applied to the satisfaction of the judgment.
