Subject: Education Based Incarceration (EBI): Gender Responsive

Reference: CDM 5-13-130.00, CCR Title 15, section 1061

Unit Commander Signature: On File Date: 02/19/2025

PURPOSE OF ORDER:

The purpose of this order is to establish procedures for inmate participation in educational programs offered by the Gender Responsive Services (GRS) Unit at the Century Regional Detention Facility (CRDF).

SCOPE OF ORDER:

This order shall apply to all personnel assigned to or working in any capacity at CRDF.

ORDER:

The Gender Responsive Services Unit is responsible for providing inmate educational programs in accordance with the Minimum Standards for Adult Local Detention Facilities, Title 15, section 1061, "Inmate Education Plan." The scope of the educational programs shall be determined by the GRS Unit in consultation with the facility unit commander.

All inmates are eligible to participate in the classes, except those inmates determined by the Sheriff's Department to be high risk or on disciplinary status. Inmates shall not be precluded from attending classes solely based on a mental health diagnosis or prescription of medication.

To request enrollment into any of the programs or classes offered, an inmate must complete an Education Based Incarceration Program Request Form [REDACTED TEXT]
