5-06/150.30 - Sheriff's Response Team Responsibilities

The responsibilities of each team composition are as follows:

- Commander - shall retain command and responsibility for the SRT, create a plan of action and/or mission for the SRT;
- Captain - assists the SRT Commander or, in the absence of the Commander, acts in that role;
- Platoon Lieutenant – establishes tactics to meet objectives outlined by the SRT Commander or Captain.
- Emergency Operations Bureau (EOB) SRT Sergeant – assists the SRT Commander or Captain;
- Platoon Sergeant - assists the Platoon Lieutenant;
- Deputy Scribe - assists the Platoon Lieutenant;
- Deputy Marksman - is armed for limited counter-marksman duties;
- Squad Sergeant - acting under the direction of the SRT Platoon Lieutenant, is responsible for the supervision of the 15 Deputies in the squad;
- Assistant Squad Sergeant - is responsible for Body Worn Camera (BWC) documentation of the squad’s activities; and
- Squad Deputies - shall perform the functions and mission as directed by the Squad Sergeant.