3-03/100.75 - Chaplain Volunteer Uniform

Chaplain volunteers may purchase, at their own expense, and wear while performing chaplain volunteer duties for the Department, with the concerned unit commander's approval, a uniform consisting of the following:

- Dark blue trousers or skirt;
- White shirt (same as the Community Service Officer uniform shirt) or white polo;
- Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department cloth shield (same as the Law Enforcement Technician cloth shield);
- Black basket weave belt;
- Volunteer shoulder patches;
- "CHAPLAIN" patrol rocker (to be worn on both shoulders and flush with the bottom of the volunteer patch) lettering size 7/16", height 3/4", width 4";
- Name tag; and
- Blue wind-breaker type jacket with (CHAPLAIN) on back.

Peer Support Uniform

Peer Support volunteers may purchase, at their own expense, and wear while performing Peer Support volunteer duties for the Department, with the concerned unit commander's approval, a uniform consisting of the following:

- Sworn personnel.
    - A solid black long or short sleeve, two or three button-front pullover polo shirt, with a collar;
        - A yellow (gold) embroidered Sheriff's six-point star on the left breast area;
        - The words "PEER SUPPORT" silk-screened in white on the back of the shirt, surrounded by a border, and
        - The employee's surname embroidered on the right breast area with white thread.
    - Black wind-breaker type jacket;
        - A yellow (gold) embroidered Sheriff's six-point star on the left breast area;
        - The words "PEER SUPPORT" silk-screened in white on the back of the jacket, surrounded by a border, and

- The employee's surname embroidered on the right breast area with white thread.

- Civilian personnel.
  - A solid black long or short sleeve, two or three button-front pullover polo shirt, with a collar;
    - A yellow (gold) embroidered Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department shield on the left breast area;
    - The words "PEER SUPPORT" silk-screened in white on the back of the shirt, surrounded by a border, and
    - The employee's surname embroidered on the right breast area with white thread.
  - Black wind-breaker type jacket
    - A yellow (gold) embroidered Sheriff's Department shield on the left breast area;
    - The words "PEER SUPPORT" silk-screened in white on the back of the jacket, surrounded by a border, and
    - The employee's surname embroidered on the right breast area with white thread.